COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

- A knowledge of how the different forms of integration (free trade area, customs union, single market) fit together
- An understanding of the key principles underpinning the single market
- An ability to discuss the constitutional issues arising
- A detailed knowledge of a specific field of free movement of goods
- An understanding of how to analyse problems in the area

RECOMMENDED PREPARATION

Students must have studied the EU Legal Order course.

TEACHING METHOD(S)

This course will be taught through guided lectures, interspersed with discussion, and problem questions. Good use is made of visual tools is made.

ASSESSMENT METHOD AND CRITERIA

The students will be evaluated through a two hour exam which will contain two sections. Part A will have two problem questions; Part B will have two essay style questions. Students will have to answer one question from Part A and one from Part B. The exam will be open book but only class notes, class handout and slides are allowed to be taken into the exam.

Retake examinations, i.e. exams passed in the second examination session, will have the same format as those taken during the first exam session. The only exception concerns oral exams, which are replaced in the second exam session by written exams. When a student takes an examination during the second session, the final mark for the course is based solely on the result of the retake examination. No other element of evaluation which would have been taken into consideration in the calculation of the final mark during the first examination session will be considered in the second session. (art. 28 of the Specific Provisions)
