

China and EU leaders focus on trade ties

Trade with the EU is worth almost $1.5bn a day and is China's main trading partner.

Last updated: 01 Apr 2014 03:43

Chinese and European leaders have been meeting in Brussels to discuss trade relationships.

Trade with the EU is worth almost $1.5bn per day and the union is China's primary trading partner.

The meeting is the first of its kind since China and the EU established ties four decades ago.

Al Jazeera's Phil Lavelle reports from Bruges.

Source: Al Jazeera