

STUDY PROGRAMME

European Interdisciplinary Studies, Natolin campus (Advanced Academic Master)

YEAR

2018 - 2019

COURSE TITLE

The Practices of Project Management in the EU's Foreign Policy in the Neighbourhood

SEMESTER

2

COURSE PROFESSOR(S)

NATORSKI Michal

ACADEMIC ASSISTANT(S)

Oleksandr Hleba

COURSE TYPE

Workshop

MAJOR(S)

EPAP, EUW, EUN, EHC

ECTS CREDITS

No ECTS

CONTACT HOURS

10

INDIVIDUAL STUDY TIME

3

TUTORIALS

COEFFICIENT

Not applicable

LANGUAGE(S)

EN

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Understand the role of the EU financial instruments for the development priorities in the neighbourhood,
- Comprehend the role of Programme/Project Cycle Management (PCM) approach in the practice of the EU external relations in the neighbourhood,
- Understand and employ the methodology of Logical Framework Analysis.

RECOMMENDED PREPARATION

None

TEACHING METHOD(S)

Seminars with group assignments and feedback discussions.

ASSESSMENT METHOD AND CRITERIA

No formal assessment. Informal feedback during the workshop about the progress and outcomes of group assignments.

COURSE CONTENTS

- Development dimensions and the financial instruments of EU foreign policy in the EU neighbourhood
- Development priorities in the practice of the EU-funded projects and Programme Cycle Management
- Introduction to the Logical Framework Analysis.

COURSE MATERIALS (readings and other learning resources/tools)

- Journal articles, book chapters and handbooks for practitioners.
- Original working documents of the European Commission (projects' documents, promotional materials).
- Power point presentations and short video clips.