

PROGRAMME

SHINING A LIGHT ON ENERGY

10 YEARS OF THE LISBON TREATY
NATOLIN

17 – 18 JUNE 2020

17th June

14h30 - 15h00 Opening session

- Vice-Rector Ewa Ośniecka-Tamecka, College of Europe in Natolin
- Prof. Dr. Anna Herranz-Surrallés, Maastricht University, College of Europe in Natolin
- Alexandra Blin, Head of the Energy and Climate Society, Student College of Europe in Natolin

15h00 - 16h00 Theme 1: Between Energy Sovereignty and Solidarity

Moderated by Prof. Dr. Dirk Buschle, Energy Community, College of Europe Bruges and Natolin

- Ewa Mazur, European Law and Energy Policy expert, Polish Ministry of Climate, College of Europe in Natolin Alumna
Energy Solidarity Since Lisbon: From Paper Exercise to Constitutional Principle.
- Anna Mathews, Energy Lawyer, SMM Legal
The European Commission's recommendations on the basis of the Governance Regulation (2018/1999) in the context of Member State's right to shape national energy-mix (article 194(2) TFEU).
- Wouter Vandorpe, Energy Lawyer, Fieldfisher LLP, and K.U. Leuven
How firm is the 550g rule as to capacity mechanisms in the light of the Lisbon Treaty principles

16h30 - 17h30 Theme 2: EU Energy Security Challenges

Moderated by Dr. Frank Umbach, European Centre for Energy and Resource Security, College of Europe in Natolin

- Gianmarco Riva, University of Bologna
Rethinking Energy Diversification in the Baltic States- How Divergences in Threats Construction Shape Policy Agendas
- Robert Spanheimer, Head of Energy at Bitkom
Reliability of the energy supply system - from robustness to resilience

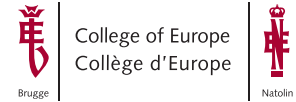

PROGRAMME

SHINING A LIGHT ON ENERGY

10 YEARS OF THE LISBON TREATY
NATOLIN

17 – 18 JUNE 2020

18th June

11h00 - 12h30 Theme 3: Making the Energy Transition Work

Moderated by Andrea Bonzanni, EDF Trading, College of Europe in Natolin

- Arnold Bruhin, Navigant Energy
Introducing flexible governance for renewable energy: how the EU came to drop nationally binding targets for 2030.
- Elena Donnari, Council of European Energy Regulators, College of Europe in Natolin Alumna
Energy communities in the clean energy package: regulatory challenges and opportunities for collective prosumers in the EU.
- Johannes Leininger, Equinor
Beyond subsidies- the missing money dilemma of renewables.
- Lisse Van Vliet, Student College of Europe in Natolin
There and Back Again? 'Bindingness' and 'Stringency' in Post-Lisbon Renewables Governance in the European Union and the Energy Community

14h30 - 15h30 Theme 4: Mainstreaming Climate Neutrality

Moderated by Prof. Dr. Anna Herranz-Surrallés, Maastricht University, College of Europe in Natolin

- Zofia Roguska, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Poland, PhD candidate Warsaw University
Climate litigation – a silver bullet for insufficient climate action?
- Dr. Agnieszka Smoleńska, EUI Florence and Polityka Insight and Dr. Paweł Tokarski, SWP, College of Europe in Natolin Alumni
The Greening of the ECB- a legal-economic analysis

16h00 - 17h00 Theme 5: Ensuring a Just Transition for All

Moderated by Marine Cornelis, NextEnergyConsumer

- Alexandra Blin, Student College of Europe in Natolin
Towards a socially fair energy transition: The case study of Energy Poverty
- Heidi Renault, GRTgaz, College of Europe in Natolin Alumna
Achieving a just transition: how can the European Pillar of Social Rights contribute to reskilling employees in the energy transition of fossil-fuel reliant regions?

17h00 - 17h30 Closing session

- Ambassador Artur Lorkowski, former Special Envoy for the COP24, College of Europe in Natolin
- Mr. Adam Guibourgé-Czetwertynski, Undersecretary of State, Polish Ministry for Climate
- Alexandra Blin, Head of the Energy and Climate Society, Student College of Europe in Natolin

