RECOMMENDED PREPARATION

None

TEACHING METHOD(S)

Lecture with general discussions. Students' presentations could be envisaged depending on the number of participants. Media and movies can be used as well to enlarge discussions and evaluate from a different perspective certain aspect of the topics touched by the course

ASSESSMENT METHOD AND CRITERIA

2-hour open-book written exam; 3 out of 4 questions to be answered; each answer should not exceed 2 pages (100%).

The College of Europe reserves the right to change the delivery and assessment of the course in case of circumstances beyond the reasonable control of the College (force majeure). Any communication from the campus administration in this regard takes precedence over the information provided in this ECTS card.

Retake examinations, i.e. exams passed in the second examination session, will have the same format as those taken during the first exam session. The only exception concerns oral exams, which are replaced in the second exam session by written exams. When a student takes an examination during the second session, the final mark for the course is based solely on the result of the retake examination. No other element of evaluation which would have been taken into consideration in the calculation of the final mark during the first examination session will be considered in the second session". (art. 28 of the Specific Provisions).

COURSE CONTENTS

- The first industrial revolution: technology, firms, and the State (1780-1870).
- The second industrial revolution, the rise of big business and the first globalization (1870-1914).
- Wars, depression and de-globalisation (1914-1945).
- Growth, international cooperation, the European integration process, and the market regulation (1945-1980).
- The challenges of the second globalization with an evaluation of the role of Europe (1980-2020).
