

CALL FOR PAPERS

BRUGES REGIONAL INTEGRATION & GLOBAL GOVERNANCE PAPERS

Purpose:

The Bruges Regional Integration & Global Governance (BRIGG) papers are a joint working paper series of the EU International Relations and Diplomacy Studies Department at the College of Europe and the Comparative Regional Integration Studies Programme of the United Nations University in Bruges. The series offers a platform for contributions by scholars and practitioners on topics such as

- the European Union and other forms of regionalism from a comparative perspective,
- the role of regional organisations (including the EU) in the United Nations,
- the regions' external relations and diplomacy,
- the EU as a model for other world regions,
- the EU in international institutions,
- regions in global governance, or
- issues of interregionalism.

Submissions:

Contributions may be submitted in English or French. The copyright remains with the author(s). Each paper will be lightly reviewed by the editorial team and authors may be invited to re-submit a revised version. The BRIGG papers are made available worldwide and free of charge through electronic publication on both the College of Europe and the UNU-CRIS websites.

Authors' Instructions:

Contributions must be submitted in Word format to both ivanlangenhove@cris.unu.edu and sieglinde.gstoehl@coleurope.eu. The papers should normally be around 8.000 words in length with an abstract of about 150 words and a brief biographical note on the author(s). Authors are kindly asked to use 1.5 line-spacing, 11 point Century Gothic font (10 point for footnotes) and justified margins. Headings must be printed in bold (12 point) and subheadings in italics (11 point). Either UK or US spelling may be used but must be consistent throughout the text. References (footnotes, bibliography) should preferably be formatted according to the following examples:
