

Salomé Santos Lorenzo studied Law at the Universidad of Deusto with a specialty in finance Law and did a Master in European Law in College of Europe in Bruges (Belgium).

She worked during 13 years as lawyer specialized in European Law and compliance, first in Martínez Lage & Asociados, and later in Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer, advising different national companies in issues regarding Antitrust and Compliance.

In 2010 she joined the British multinational Associated British Foods (ABF) as advisor responsible of Continental Europe, also developing duties in global and strategic counselling for the companies part of the Iberian Group. Since year 2015, Salome is Agriculture Director of AB Azucarera Iberia, managing a wide group of people in the development of the company's agriculture strategy.