

Competition Policy at the Intersection of Equity and Efficiency Honoring the Scholarship of Eleanor M. Fox

June 8, 2016 – Brussels (Bibliothèque Solvay)

8h30-9h00	Registration & Coffee
9h00-9h15	Welcome: Damien Gerard and Ioannis Lianos
9h15-9h45	Opening Keynote Address: Mario Monti
9h45- 11h15	Panel 1: Making Markets Work for People: Inequality, Poverty, Discrimination, Development, and Barriers Chair: Harry First Participants: Mor Bakhoun, Michal Gal, David Lewis, Ioannis Lianos
11h15-11h30	Coffee Break
11h30-13h00	Panel 2: Global Governance: the Role and Design of Antitrust Enforcement Chair: Frederic Jenny <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Extraterritoriality And Designs For A Global Antitrust Enforcement System Participants: Dennis Davis, Philip Marsden, Spencer Weber Waller ▪ At the Intersection of Trade and Competition Law Participants: Allan Fels, Damien Neven
13h00-14h30	Lunch - Luncheon Keynote Address: Diane Wood
14h30-16h00	Panel 3: The Ideology of Antitrust: Through the Looking Glass Chair: Giuliano Amato Participants: Donald Baker, Josef Drexler, Albert Foer, Maurice Stucke
16h00-17h15	Panel 4: Comparative Competition Law: Fostering Understanding Chair: Heike Schweitzer Participants: Ariel Ezrachi, Simon Roberts, Daniel Sokol
17h15-17h30	Coffee Break
17h30-18h45	Panel 5: The Texture of Antitrust: Institutions, Norms and Economics Chair: Ian Forrester Participants: Dan Crane, Giorgio Monti, Dan Rubinfeld, Edward Iacobucci
18h45-19h00	Closing Speech: Eleanor Fox