

College of Europe
Collège d'Europe

Natolin

PRESS RELEASE

Ms Anna Fotyga, Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Poland, Mr Philippe Douste-Blazy, Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of France and Mr Hubert Védrine former Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of France, will visit the College of Europe, Natolin (Warsaw) campus on Monday, 29 January.

The debate on “ What’s Next for Europe ?” will be held in the presence of the students of the College and invited guests at 4 p.m. . in Auditorium A2. Mr Dominique Moïsi, Professor of the College of Europe, and Mr Marek Ostrowski, journalist of weekly “Polityka” will provide a commentary on the debate.

French and English are the two languages of the debate, the interpreting into Polish will be assured. The debate will be followed by a Q&A session. The guests will be welcomed by Robert Picht, Vice-Rector of the College of Europe, Natolin campus.

We kindly request press to register at tel. 022.545.94.01

For more information please contact : kwaltenberger@coleurop.pl or check the website : www.coleurope.eu

The College of Europe, founded in 1949 and based in Bruges and Natolin (Warsaw, Poland), was the first and is one of the most reputed institutes of European postgraduate studies, which prepares individuals from over 45 countries to work and live in an international environment. The College of Europe offers study programmes in EU international relations and diplomacy studies, economics, interdisciplinary studies, law, and politics and administration.
Read more: www.coleurope.eu.

College of Europe
ul.Nowoursynowska 84
PI, 02-797 Warszawa
Tel. +48(0) 22 545 94 01
Fax.+48(0) 22 649 13 52